Scott's Magazine, Atlanta, Georgia, among other items, contains "The Georgia Campaign," "Country Life Since the War," etc. Price $4 a year. It is a sterling periodical.

Bonnets—See the new card of Misses Pearson & Lucado. They have reduced the prices of their bonnets.

The N. Y. Home Journal is before us, and is the most beautiful and attractive weekly published in the North. Price $2 per year.

Editor Assaulted—Mr. George E. Speck, one of the editors of the Morristown Gazette, was waylaid and beaten severely by Jim Gill, A. O. Bowen, Jas. W. Chilton and Sam. Jarrogon, on account of an article which appeared in the Gazette.

Capt. B. Mansard, of Bristol, is the agent and correspondent for that sterling paper the Nashville Union & American. In the issue of the first we detect the vigor and point of his trenchant pen. Persons wishing a first class Nashville paper will please apply to him.

Personal—Gen. H. H. Wells, Governor of Virginia, will arrive in this city Friday evening, from Richmond. It is expected that he will address the people on the political questions of the day. He has already engaged rooms at the Washington House—Lynchburg Rep.

Large Decline in Wheat—During the present week the price of wheat has declined fully 30 cents per bushel. This must then reduce the price of flour 75 cents per hundred.

Another Kerosene Explosion—Mr. W. F. Clark, a student near Union, West Virginia, was seriously burned a few days ago by the explosion of a kerosene lamp. He attempted to blow it out, and the explosion followed. His uncle came to his rescue. He will recover, so says the Register.

Personal—Miss Mattie Winston, of our town, but late of Louisiana, has been employed to conduct the department of vocal music in Jackson Female Institute, Abingdon. Miss Winston is a lady of many attractions, and has made, during her residence here, very many friends. As a vocalist, she is gifted and cultivated. Her voice is one of extraordinary sweetness, volume and compass, and a better selection could not have been made, we think.

Blackwood, for October, has been sent us by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., New York. The new contributions are, "Clever Women," "at Peace," "Religious Equality and Unlimited Formulas," "A Roman Lawyer in Jerusalem—First Century," and "The Irish Grievance." Terms $4 per year, or with any of the four Reviews $7; with all of the Reviews $15.

Jackson Female Institute—Rev. S. D. Stuart, Principal of this rising Institute at Abingdon, honored us with a visit last week, and assures us of the flattering prospects of the school. They have now upwards of forty pupils, and are expecting 50 more very soon. It dates its birth from the 15th of last month, and is under the charge of the Presbyterian Church.

Shavers—On last Friday Joel, William and Thomas Shaver, together with three of the female members of their families, were tried before Judge Campbell, of Goodson, for stealing four tobacco from Robert and Wm. Page, at Three Springs. In default of bail in the sum of $1,000, Joel, William and Thomas were sent to jail.

Col. Flournoy's Appointments—Col. T. S. Flournoy, President of the Norfolk and Great Western Railroad, will address the people in behalf of that great enterprise at the following times and places:

Lebanon, Nov. 28; Taylorsville, Dec. 1; Bristol, Dec. 3; Abingdon, Dec. 5. It is to be hoped that the people of Bristol and all who would be glad to have this great work to tap the Va. & Tenn. Railroad at this point will attend.

Suicide—The widow Crewell, of Sullivan county, Tenn., about four miles from this place, committed suicide recently by hanging herself with a couple of hanks of thread, which she so adjusted that in swinging off they drew her hands tightly within her folds and pinioned them tightly above her head. She was about 70 years of age. Her sister committed suicide some years ago in Smyth county, Va., where they came from, and her brother cut his throat about twelve months ago. Mrs. C. was living with her son at the time of her self-destruction.

Another Suicide—On Monday, the 25th ult., Mrs. Baum, at Baum's Camp Ground, five miles below Blountville, Tenn., hung herself. Arising earlier that morning than the other members of the family, she built a fire and afterwards, by means of a rope, hung herself to a smith shop close by. She, too, was aged about 70 years. She was regarded as a woman of unusual excellence and piety, and was venerated to a large degree in Blountville. She leaves a husband and large family of adult children.

On Saturday next, the citizens of Washington and Sullivan counties are requested to meet in Bristol, at the Nickels House, to consider the impending interest of our people in regard to Railroad Matters. By order of P. ROHR, Mayor.

Memorial Association—There will be a meeting of the Memorial Association at the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night, next. If you love your dead, we shall expect to see you there. Let all the people of Bristol come out.

New Advertisements—W. D. Minor & Co. desire to sell off cheap; they also call attention to their coalery, which the present temperature renders appropriate. M. L. Blackley gives a notice worth reading. Steiff's Piano's, and also those of Wm. Knabe & Co., all in point; "He whose soul is not stirred" by these announcements "is fit only for treason, stratagems and spoils." Singer's Sewing Machines are announced; these machines are used at Emory and Henry College, and positively they have no superior in the world. Canfield, Brother & Co.; who has not heard of their jewelry? J. M. Freeman, Watch maker and Jeweler, Norfolk; Norfolk looks up, and so does Mr. Freeman. Alaska Diamonds, from the North Pole, almost by J. T. Monroe; new, very Samuel Orendorf & Son, Grocers and Commission Merchants, Baltimore; well known. Davis & Bro., Grocers and Commission Merchants, Norfolk, and Geo. J. Rogers, Commission Merchant, Norfolk; both good houses. Berkeley, Miller & Co.; no better men—they keep Dry Goods and Notions, Norfolk. Geo. H. Burch, Lynchburg, succeeds Burch & Wilkes, (now no more), as Grocer and Commission Merchant. H. T. Holmboed, the $40,000 Democrat, is out again; go for him!
